Sacramento City Unified School District will launch its One Book One Sacramento summer literacy book giveaway with a rousing read-in and sing-along at the Sacramento Zoo on Monday morning.

Beginning at 10 a.m. on Monday, July 18, students from the district's summer enrichment program will gather at the zoo's reptile area to celebrate the joy of reading with local writer JaNay Brown-Wood, author of the children's book "Imani's Moon." SCUSD is giving away 2,000 copies of Brown-Wood's book (purchased with funding from a literacy grant) to encourage summer reading.
