TRATEGIC PLAN AND OTHER INITIATIVES

9.1 Governor's 2020-21 Budget Update (Rose Ramos)

Information

Chief Business Officer Rose Ramos began the presentation and introduced the Director of Government Relations at School Services of California, Leilani Aguinaldo. Ms. Aguinaldo presented an overview on budget proposals and Ms. Ramos presented on specific items that impact the District.

going structural deficit could potentially be reduced by $5.5 million dollars in 2021, more or less. Ms. Ramos said no, not necessarily because the COLA was going to be reduced. Therefore, the reduction in COLA would need to be offset against the Special Education increase.

	Member Garcia asked which programs would still be available for potential bud reductions. She has concerns because we cannot just rely on healthcare savings economic crash. Ms. Ramos said five percent would cover probably just a few months.

President Ryan asked, according to School Services, what the average reserve is for an urban school district. Ms. Ramos said that there is a reserve list that she will make available.

salaries include additional components for teachers that is in the budget that does not end up in the J90. What they were trying to demonstrate in the table is that, over time, the teacher salaries at the District were lower than at other districts, but when they added in the health benefit and looked at total compensation, it was consistently the highest across the board. Ms. Howle then spoke more about 2018-19 and 2019-20 comparisons. They wanted to make sure they were fairly comparing the District to other districts. Subsequently, the J90 reports have come out for 2018-19, and staff

Superintendent Aguilar commended the auditor team and said that District staff tried to be as accommodating as possible. He noted that in one portion of the audit the finding was that we have very limited flexibility outside of the negotiations process. Perhaps prior to our current governance structure, maybe we were not as clear about how little flexibility there was, and perhaps the assumption was that we had a lot of programs that we could fund and were in fact funding. And that to be
