

SACRAMENTO CITY UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

BP -6162.7 -Instruction
Use of Technology In Instruction

The Governing Board requires the integration of educational technology with to advance and improve the instructional program through 50.45B w1r7.1(t sc n 11.04 -0 0 11.04 7)cn 11.04 -0 0 11.04 71.0 0 that meet the educational goals and mission of the district, including, but not limited to, digital tapes, interactive videodisks, distance learning, cable television and other technologies. These technologies:

1. ~~Give~~ Enable students new ways to access information and interact with instructional content and resources to learn and practice develop skills;
  2. Facilitate and promote collaboration and engagement by and between students and teachers;
  3. ~~Support~~ Support differentiation and individualization of instruction to ~~support~~ help teachers meet a wide range of learning styles and needs
- ~~TM ( Q D E O H W H D F n K w h o l e c l a s s I n s t r u c t i o n )~~ to a mixture of small group and individualized instruction;
4. ~~Help~~ Help students develop reasoning and problem solving abilities;
  5. ~~Will be a part of students' everyday lives~~ Reflect the types of ~~and~~ resources prevalent or emergent in the workplace and general community

The Board recognizes that ~~trained~~ teachers are needed to make the best use of professional learning is required to maximize the educational benefits of the district's technology in instruction. Training shall be made available to staff to facilitate the effective integration of technology. Teachers and instructional aides shall receive training in integrating these technologies into the instructional program. All district schools adopted: November 16, 1998 Sacramento, California revised: April 15, 2002

BP 6162.7 Instruction
Use of Technology In Instruction

The Governing Board requires the integrated use of technology to advance and improve the instructional program through the use of computers, mobile devices, software applications, wired and wireless data networks, and locally and externally hosted content and resources that meet the educational goals and mission of the district. These technologies:

1. Enable students to access