Division: Legal Services

Recommendation: Approve adoption of Board Policy 4033.

Background/Rationale: The District has not adopted an employee lactation accommodation policy. Under California Labor Code sections 1030-1033, all California employers, including schools, are required to provide specific lactation accommodations to employees. Such proposed policy includes language in the CSBA Gamut model policy.

I. Overview/History of Department or Program

The District must provide a workplace in compliance with applicable labor laws, including those that provide rights to employees. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 1030, every employer, including schools, must provide a reasonable amount of break time to accommodate an employee desiring to express breast milk for the employee's infant child. The employer shall make reasonable efforts to provide the employee with the use of a room or other location, other than a toilet stall, in close proximity to the employee's work area, for the employee to express milk in private. The room or location may include the place where the employee normally works if it otherwise meets the requirements of this section.

Labor Code section 1034 requires employers to develop and implement a policy regarding lactation accommodation employer, Commission shall be unpaid."

Under Labor Code section 1034, employers are required to develop and implement a policy regarding lactation accommodation that
