Division: Safe Schools

Recommendation: To learn what the District's ongoing efforts are around preparing schools for a potential shooting threat.

Background/Rationale: Since the beginning of 2018, there have been 18 mass school shootings within the United States. Experts, staff and the community are aware that this threat will continue to plague our communities for the foreseeable future, and we must be prepared to protect our student's safety from this tragic threat. This presentation will be a brief overview of what the School Resource Officers (SROs) and Safe Schools are doing to address school safety, and our response.

Financial Considerations: None
