Depart	ment:
	Boards Association (CSBA) continues its efforts to repeal the cap on school is reserve levels. As a critical part of these efforts, CSBA is asking school board districts reserve levels. As a critical part of these efforts, CSBA is asking school boards to adopt resolutions calling for the repeal of the reserve cap language.

Background/Rationale: The cap provision was part of an education budget trailer bill that Governor Brown signed on June 20, 2014. The trailer bill provision, SB 858, Section 27, is now contained in Education Code Section 42127.01. This cap on the level of reserves that districts may maintain is a statutory requirement that becomes
