

Is to no longer just provide a basic education for all, but to provide an education that will make it possible for ALL students to be

Pillar I: Career & College

Standards

Ready, Set, Go!

District

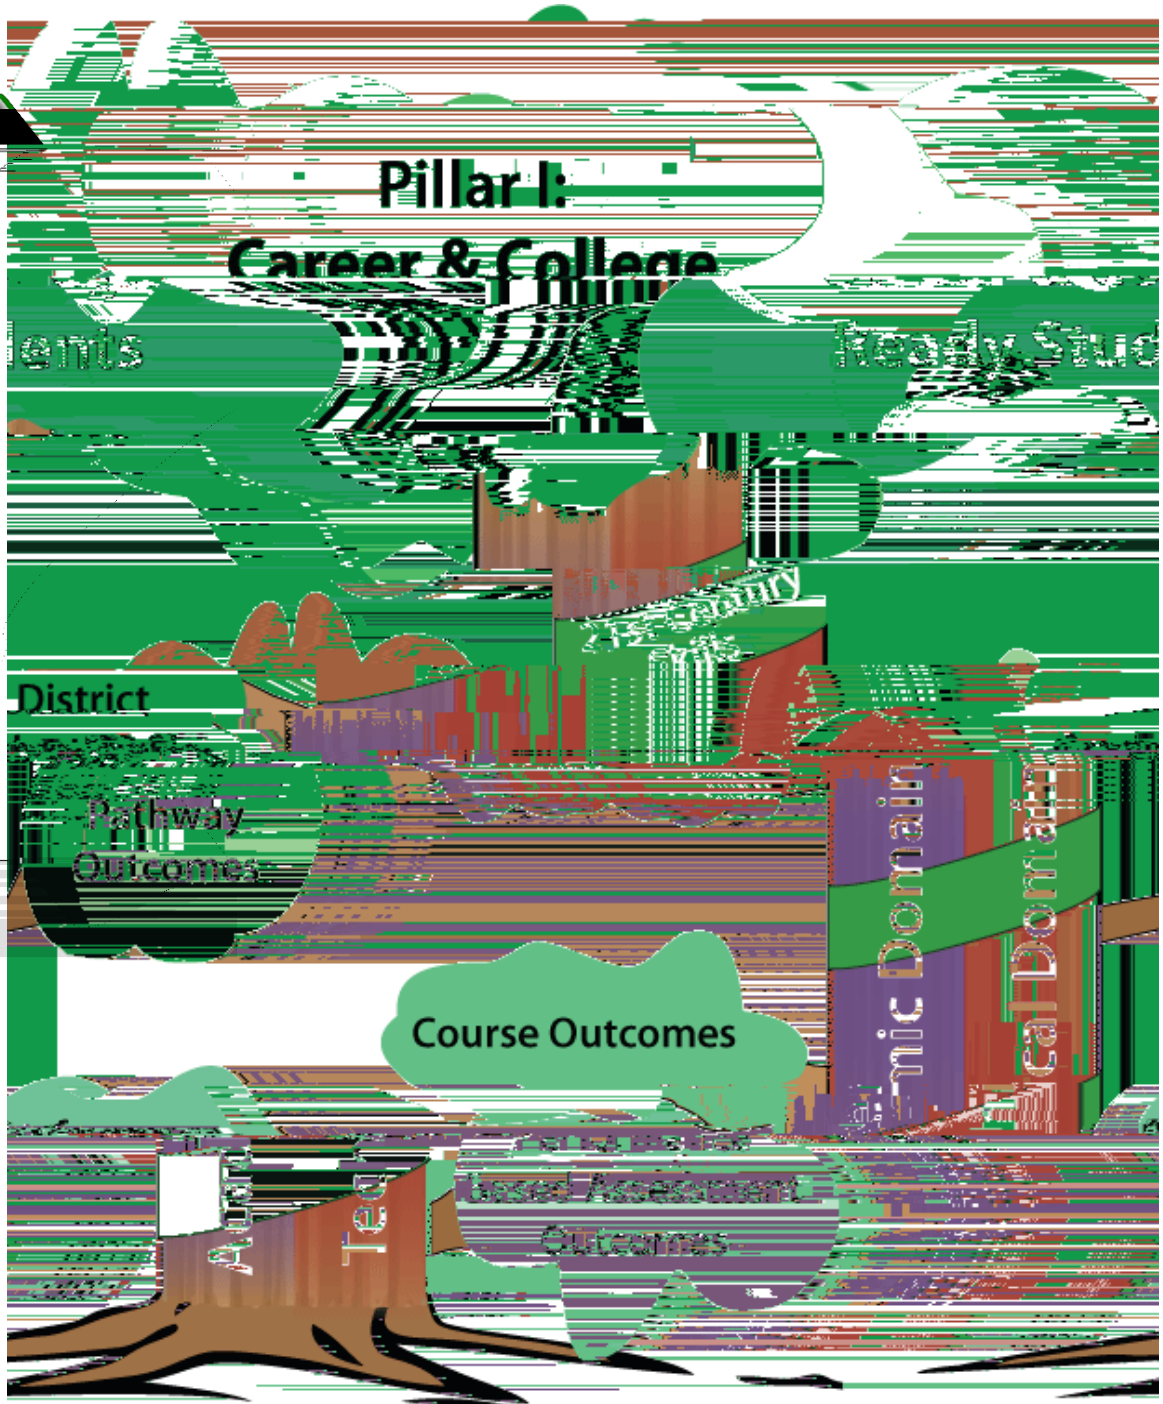

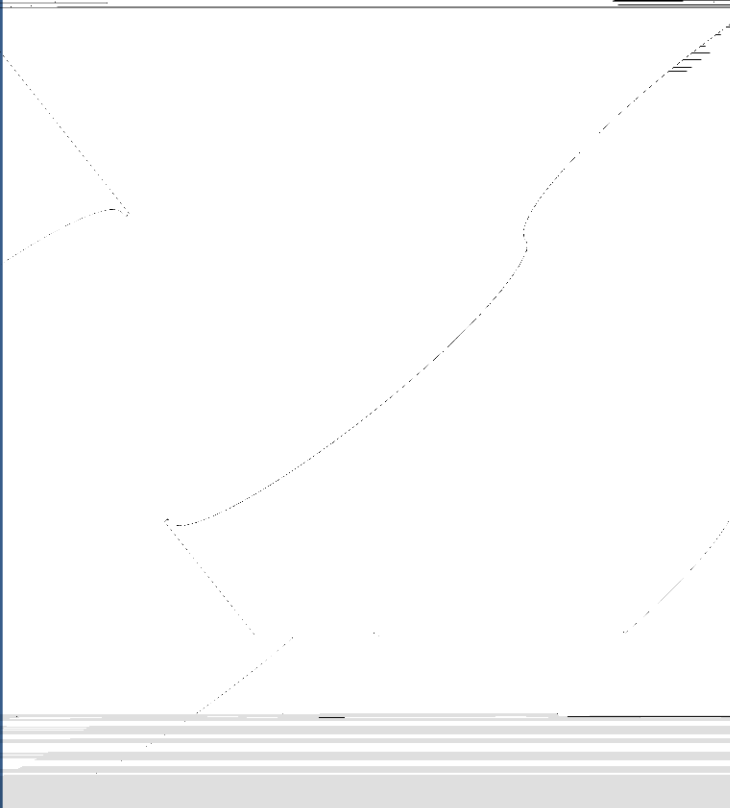

Pathway
Outcomes

Course Outcomes

Assessment
Outcomes

Academic Domain

Technical Domain

High School Reform Strategy

Linked Learning Approach
Framework for Action
Program Effectiveness
Next Steps

UC a-g College Entrance
Requirements

Demanding Technical Sequences

Work-Based Learning

Student Support Services

Smaller Learning Communities

Linked Learning Pathways

Industry Partnerships

C.K. McClatchy

Law and Public Policy Academy
Justice Academy

Luther Burbank

Law and Social Justice
International and Environmental Studies

Rosemont

Green Academy

Kennedy

Pathways Under Development

Hiram Johnson

Johnson Corporate Business Academy
Education and Leadership Academy
Science, Technology, Engineering, &
Medicine
Human and Legal Services
School of the Arts

American Legion

Culinary Arts
Business

Health Professions High School -
Careers in Health

George Washington Carver -
Environmental Design

New Technology High School -
Design Thinking

The MET - All Industry Sectors

School of Engineering and Sciences -
Engineering

Core Components

Academics

Technical

Work-Based Learning

Wrap-Around Student Support

Assessments

Formative

Summative

Professional Learning & Capacity Building

Algebra I

Literacy

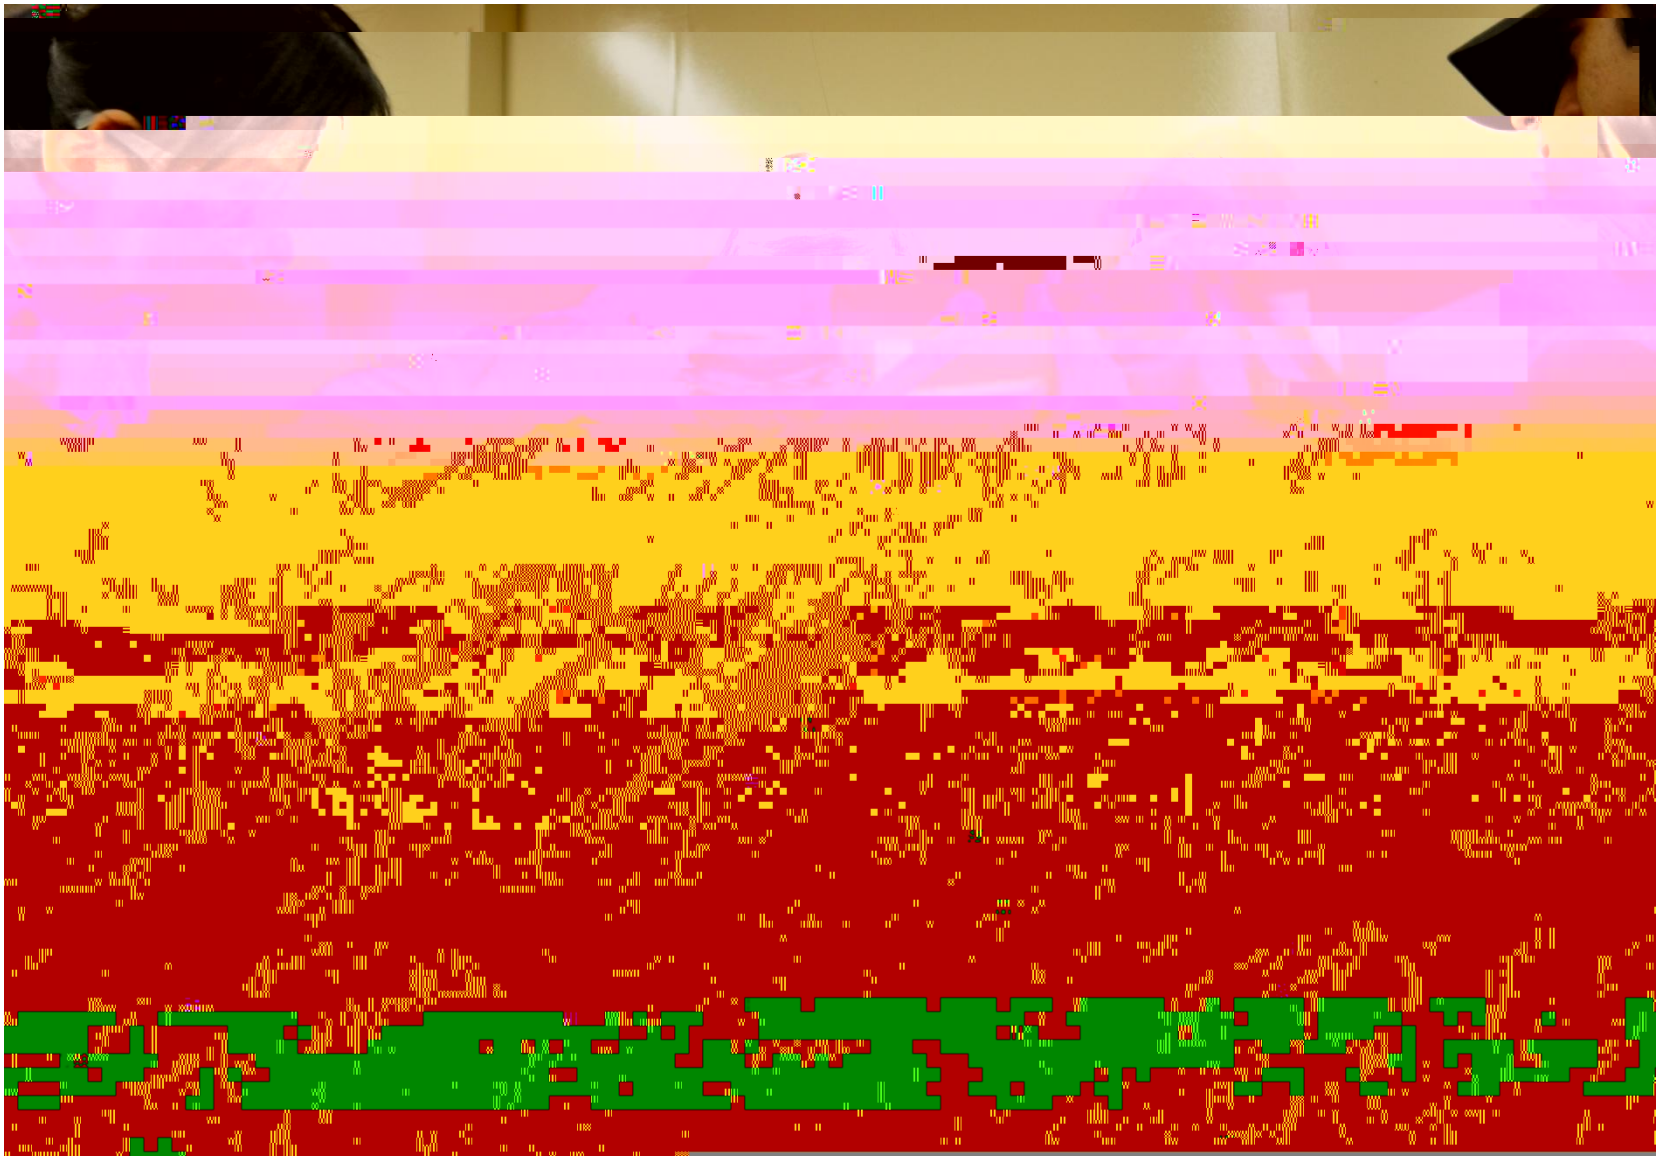

Industry-Related

Leadership

Coaching

Linking the Linked Learning Components with Assessments and Professional Learning

What Does It Look Like?

Certification Criteria

Classroom/Field Observations

Data Inquiry - Student Work

Principal, Teacher, and Student
Feedback

Remaining High Schools

Elementary and Middle School
Alignment

